

Which Audio System to Rent?

Xtreme Sound Systems

If you are in need of a sound system for a special occasion, it's a good idea to find out how many people must be accommodated. Whether there will be a small or large group of people, you can shift your interest to an audio system that would be best for your needs. This information from Anchor Audio Inc. can help you figure out what type of system is necessary to meet your needs and provide for a crisp, clear sound once your event arrives.

Sample Applications:

- Golf Tournaments
- Ballroom Functions
- Community Outreach programs
- Instructional Seminars
- Outdoor Civic events and rallies
- Grand Openings
- Banquets and award ceremonies
- Indoor/Outdoor parties, promotions, and events
- Athletic Directors and Band Masters
- Fund Raisers
- Emergency Announcements

Renting Points:

- Can be used for large outdoor audiences, up to 2500 people
- Will provide clear voice for important messages or instructions
- Very flexible, can use any microphone or audio source (Tape or CD player) no special Mic required
- Use for sound amplification with any LCD projector or other video presentation unit
- Can use CD or Tape player for music prior or during the event
- Can connect to another powered unit for even greater coverage
- Powers auxiliary components or systems

MegaVox Sound Systems

Sample Applications:

- Emergency announcements/evacuations
- Crowd Control

- Search and Rescue
- Athletic Directors and Band Masters
- Outdoor activities and ceremonies
- Outdoor training and instructional seminar

Renting Points:

- Allows hands free instruction up to 300' away from unit- no Mic cable to restrict range
- Will provide clear voice for important messages or instructions for up to 1500 people
- Can be heard clearly even over engine noise
- Very flexible, can use a wired microphone and audio source (Tape or CD player)
- Runs up to 10 hours on built-in rechargeable batteries
- Super portable, weighs only 14 lbs.
- Can power a companion speaker for crowds up to 2000

Liberty Sound Systems

Sample Applications:

- Press Conferences & Town Hall Meetings
- Banquets and Awards Ceremonies
- Indoor/Outdoor functions with pre-programmed music
- Tours / Community / Educational Events
- Group Training / City Council / Departmental Meetings
- Lounge Promotions
- Poolside Parties
- Training Seminars
- Conference room presentations and meetings
- Golf Tournaments

Renting Points:

- Audience participation-allows two way interaction with the starter and event personnel
- No MIC cable to restrict range, can interact with people up to 300 ft. away
- With the wireless MIC up to 3 people can use the system
- No hassle with additional equipment, easy to use pre-programmed music for events

- No A/C. Can be used anywhere, no power cable to trip over and can handle a crowd of 1000 people
- Can record presentations for press or attendees
- Use for sound amplification with any LCD projector or other video presentation unit
- With the wireless systems, there is no A/C, which means the system can be used anywhere, and there is no power cable to trip over.

Courtesy of Anchor Audio Inc.